VISION LAUNCH

The "What"

Why a Vision?

WHAT'S THE POINT?

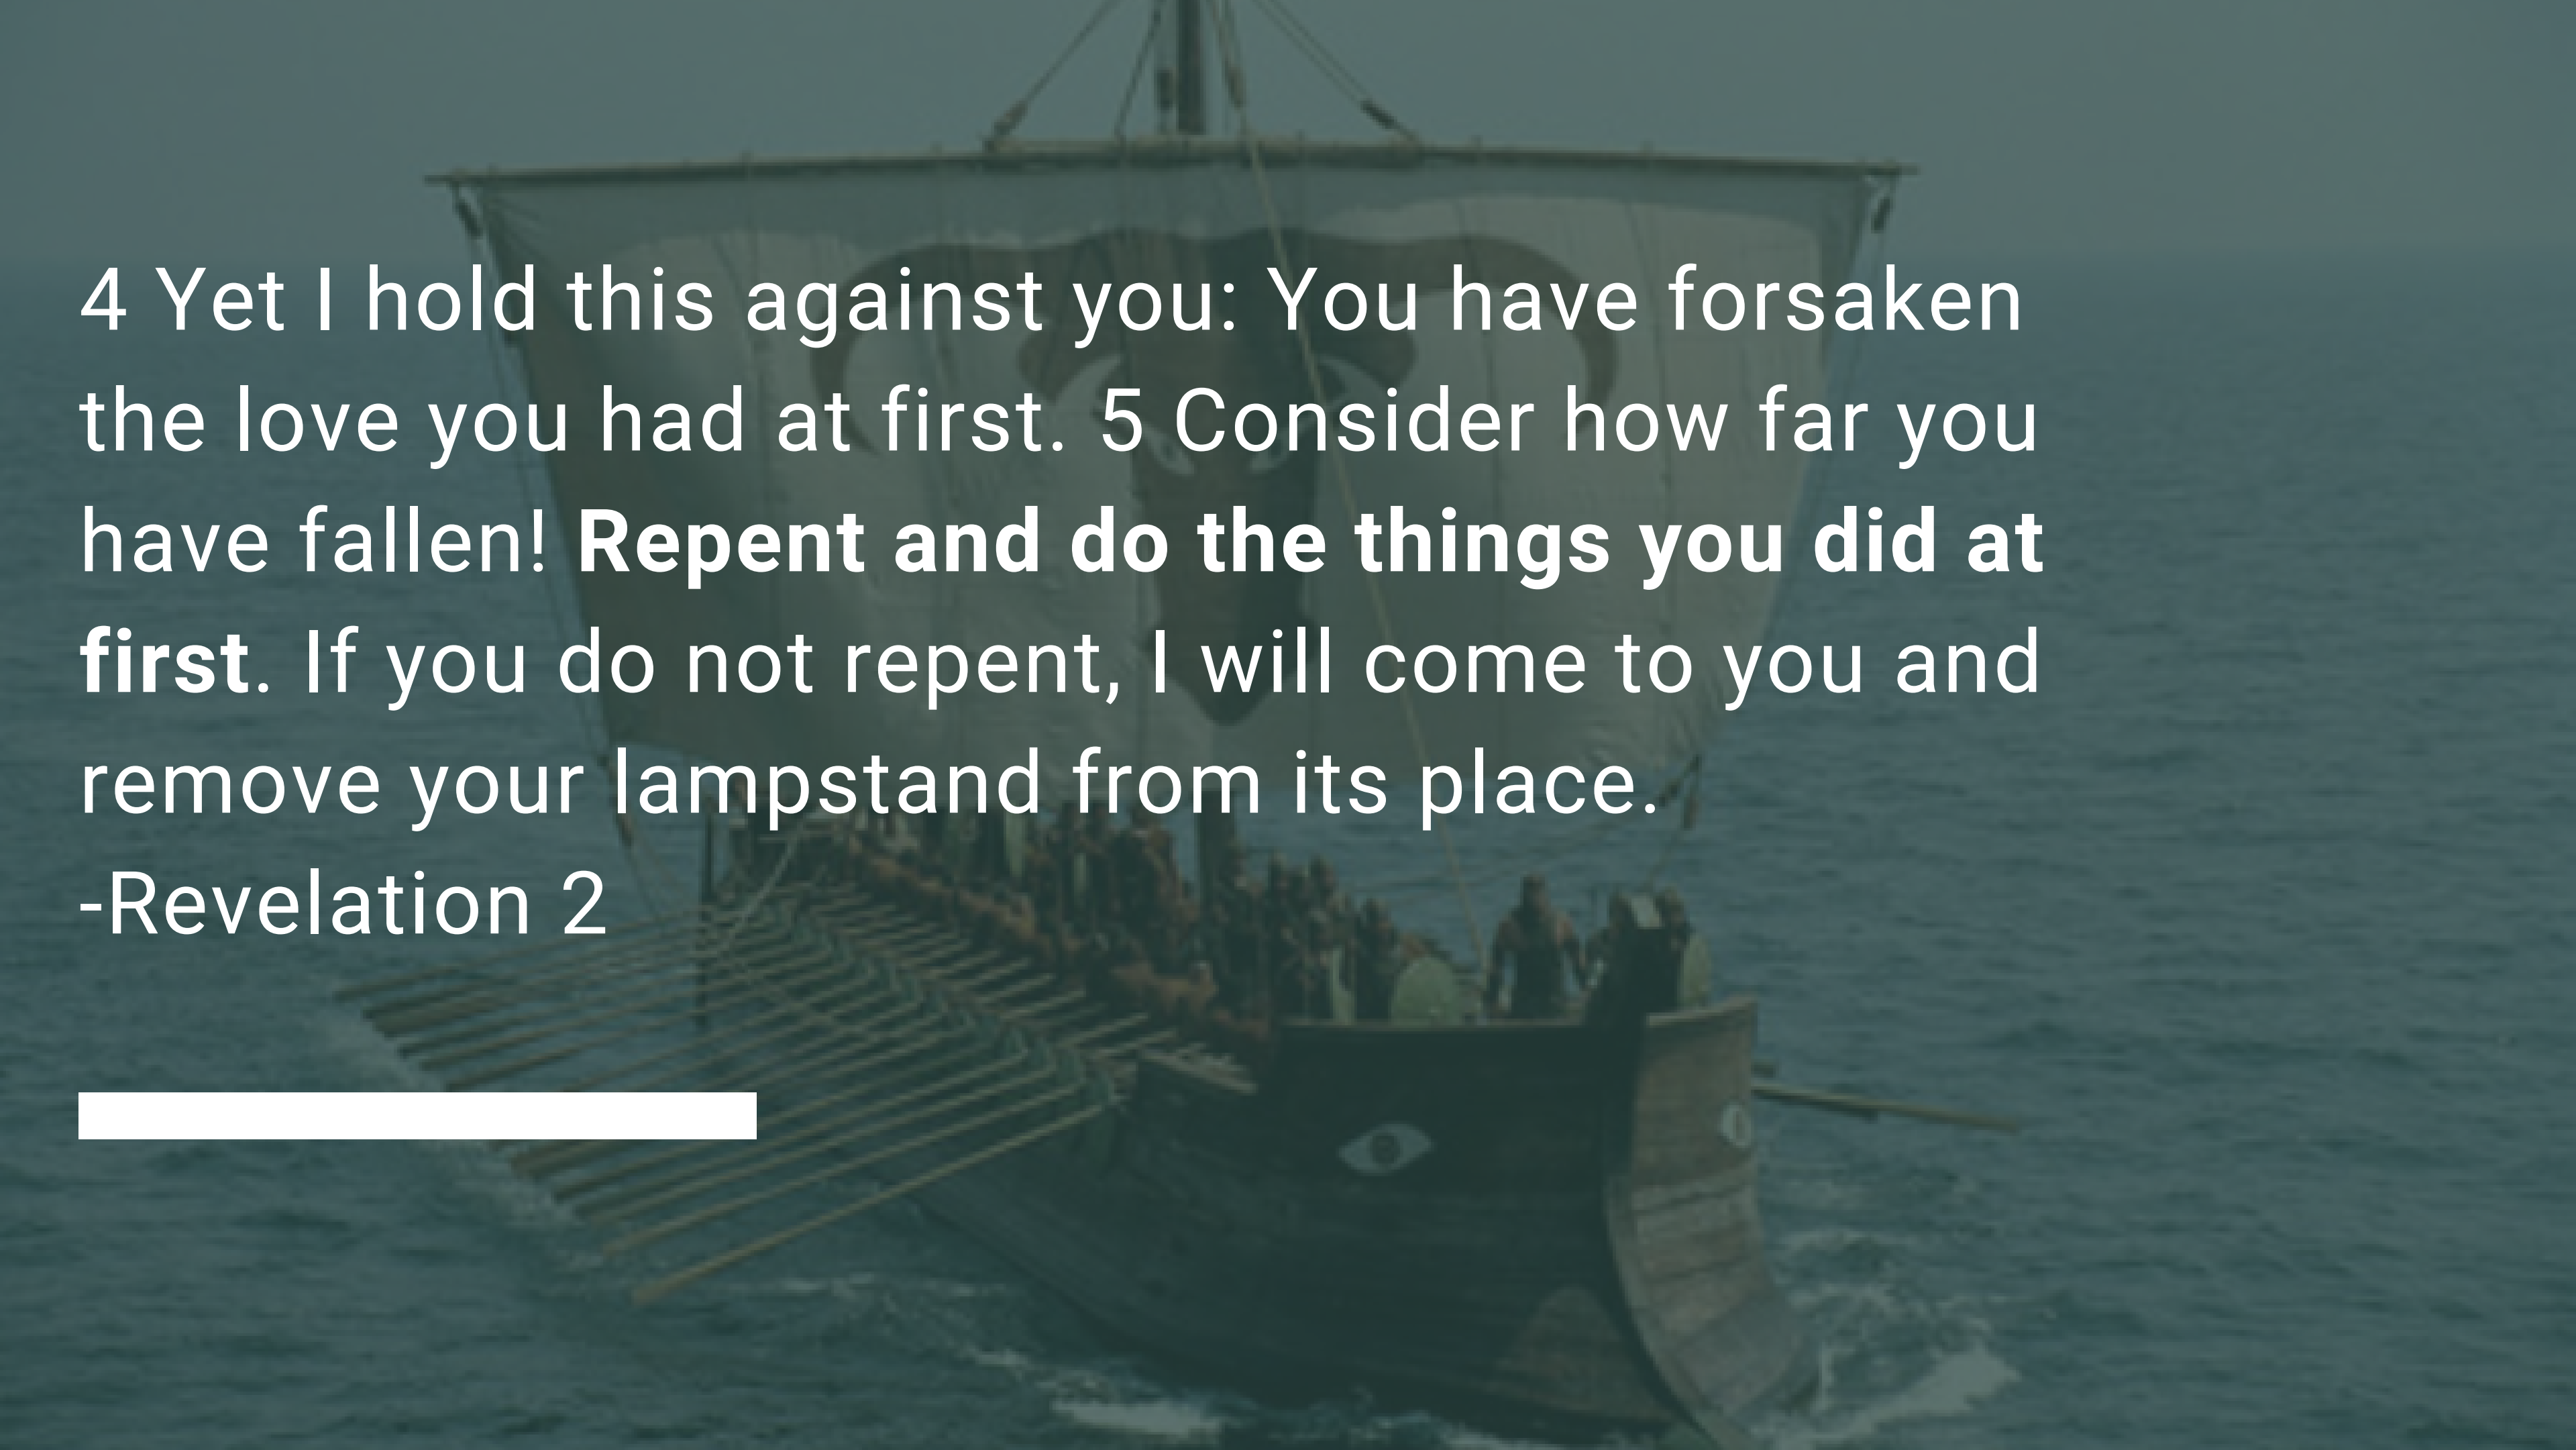

“A vision is a clear mental picture of what could be, fueled by the conviction that it should be.” -Andy Stanley

A Ship with No Destination

I felt adrift, anchorless in a running sea. This is now my home.

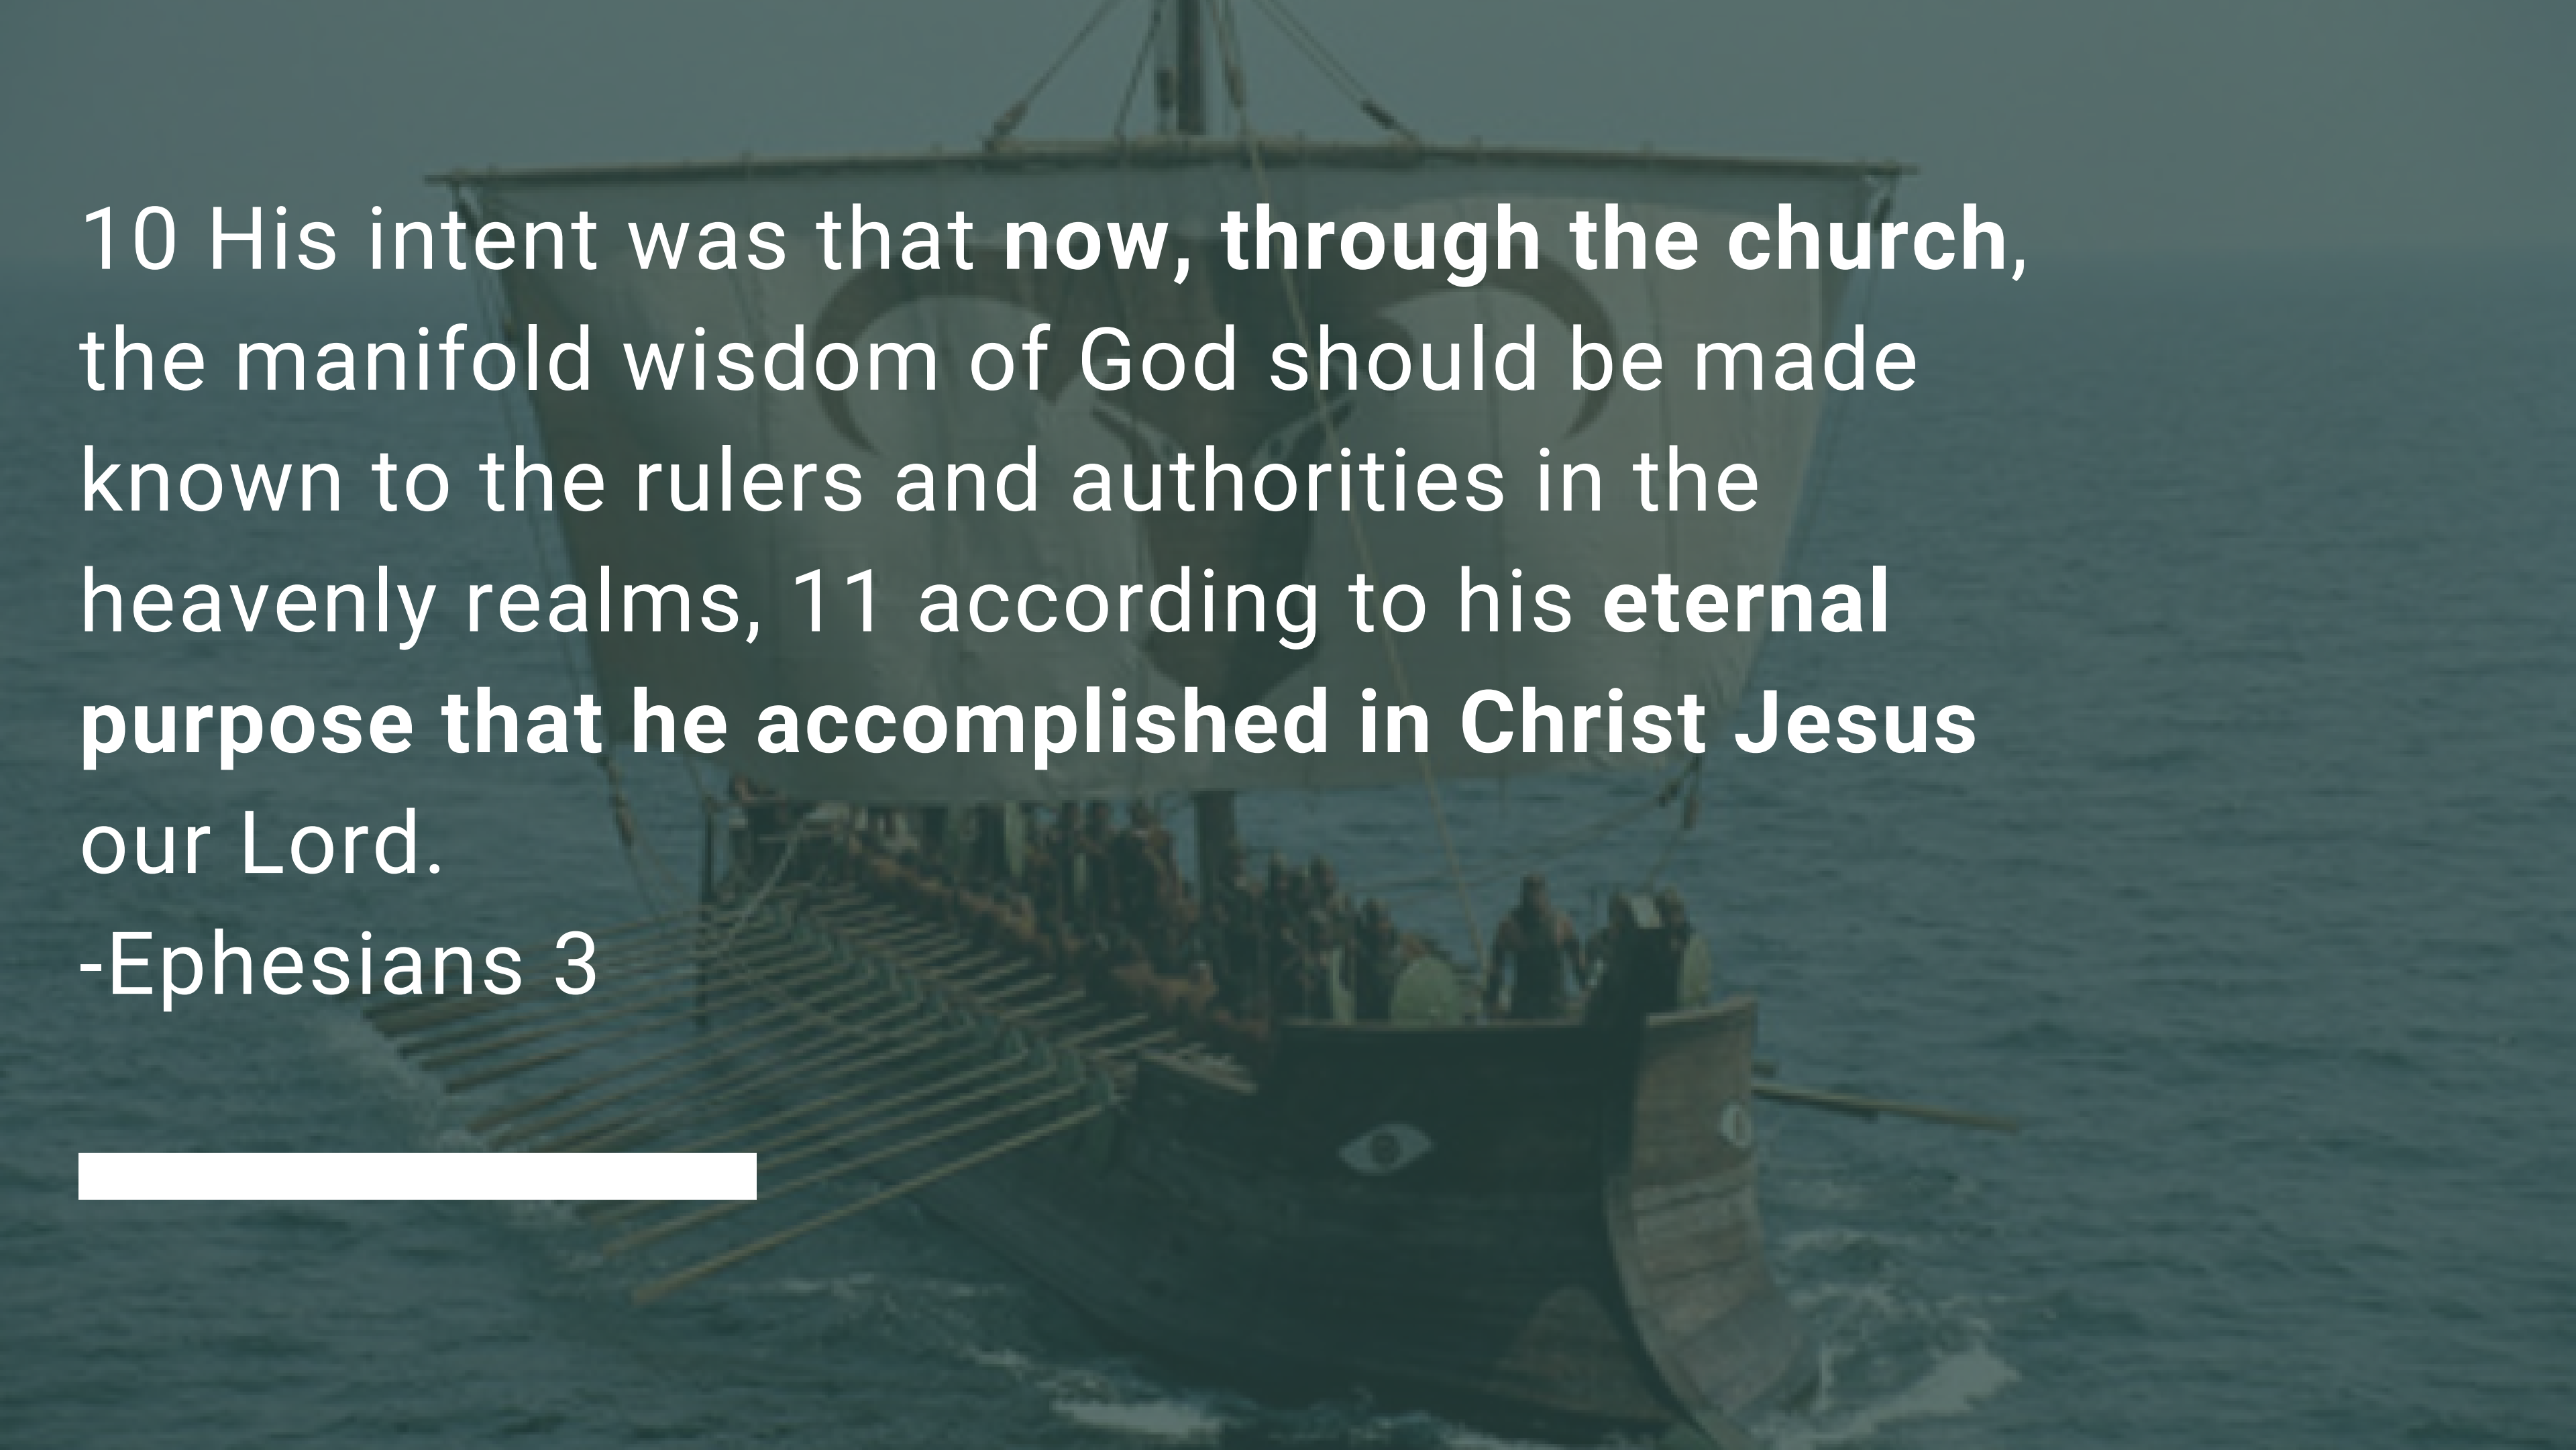

- Diana Gabaldon

A large wooden sailing ship with a white sail is on the sea. The ship is viewed from a distance, and the water is a deep blue. The ship's mast and rigging are visible. The overall scene is somewhat dimly lit, giving it a historical or dramatic feel.

4 Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken the love you had at first. 5 Consider how far you have fallen! Repent and do the things you did at first. If you do not repent, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place.

-Revelation 2

A large wooden sailing ship with multiple masts and sails is shown on a blue sea. The ship is viewed from a low angle, looking towards the bow. The sails are partially unfurled, and the ship's hull is dark wood. The background is a clear blue sky.

10 His intent was that now, through the church, the manifold wisdom of God should be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly realms, 11 according to his eternal purpose that he accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord.

-Ephesians 3

A Command from Jesus

You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.
